Shows That It Has Balance in the Treasury—State Has a Bill for Printing—Minor Officers Named and Mayor Thayer Named as Delegate to Convention in Chicago—Hearing For Hourigan Lane.

At 8:55 Monday evening the July meeting of the board of common council was opened by Mayor Thayer, with all members in attendance except Councilman Delaney.

The reading of the journal was omitted.

The hearing on the application of M.
G. Kelly for a sidewalk on the western side of South Golden street was tabled.

Michael G. Kelly said he would like to have the grade established and then he would build a walk there. He had no objection to the proposed walk.

The petition for three electric lights on West Thames street was favorably reported by the executive committee and ordered established.

Fira Marshall Howard L. Stanton reported that 19 permits for building and alterations were granted during the past quarter. It was accepted.

The committee on public works reported that estimates for sewers in Laurel Hill avenue and North Thames street had been made, and Henry Gebrath, Wm. Leung and J. P. Williams were appointed to build the sewers.

The monthly report of the city treasurer was ordered printed in the journal.

The executive committee reported that the highway lane be changed so that the way be discontinued for vehicles and a public walk laid out for individuals. The action was postponed for a hearing on July 17.

Charter Commission Report.
The charter commission submitted its final financial account and report and asked that the same be printed in the journal of the court of common council. The report was accepted and ordered printed in the journal. It showed the amount of $500 appropriated, with these disbursements: Clerical services, $108.39; printing and advertising, $234.78; supplies, $45.80; cash on hand, $80.69; unexpended balance, $114.44. There was a check for $80.69 with the report.

The report further said: The amount actually expended by the charter commission in the pursuance of its duty was $408.47, leaving an unexpended balance of $101.53.

In the above item of printing and advertising there is not included a check of $18.52, which was later believed to be a mistake. The commission presented to the commission by the state of Connecticut for printing the proposed new charter, known as house bill.

The charter commission has considered the printing of the bill to be an expensive matter and has decided to much as the same was intended as a public act as passed by the general assembly.

An estimate was made for the brick pavement of Main street, the executive committee reported, and Henry Gebrath, James H. Hickey and J. P. Williams were directed to proceed with the work. Notice was voted to be given to the contractor to begin work on the street in good condition before the brick pavement is laid.

Through his attorney, A. A. Browning, James H. Hickey presented to the fact that there is a defect in the gutter in the city cemetery which has been a matter of some time.

He agreed to construct an eaves trough on his property if desired.
It was referred to the executive committee.

Clarence D. Sevin asked to have a cedar tree removed which is in the center of the block fronting No. 17 Broadway avenue. It was referred to the executive committee.

An invitation to the city officials and heads of departments was received from the Chicago Association of Commerce to the international municipal congress at Chicago, Sept. 18 to 20.
The invitation was accepted on motion of Alderman Gebrath, and Mayor Thayer assented as the delegate to represent the city.

In regard to the Brooks street improvement, the committee reported that the expense would be large and there is no money available at present. The action was given leave to withdraw.

Minor Officials Named.
Upon motion of Alderman Gebrath, the following list of minor officials was elected:

Special Constables—Audrey W. Jarvis, H. P. Beauvolet, Michael Delaney, Timothy Sullivan, Charles C. Williams,

Honest Medicines Versus Fakes.
President Taft's recent message suggesting an amendment to the pure food and drugs law in its relation to prepared medicines does not refer to such standard medicines as Foley's Honey and Tar Compound and Foley's Kidney Pills, both of which are true medicines carefully compounded of ingredients whose medicinal qualities are recognized by the medical profession itself as the best known remedial agents for the treatment of urinary diseases. For over three decades Foley's Honey and Tar Compound has been a standard remedy for coughs, colds and affections of the throat, chest and lungs for children and for grown persons, and it retains today its pre-eminence above all other preparations of its kind. Foley Kidney Pills are equally effective and meritorious. Lee & Osgood Co.
